

STC ITEMS IN THE FISHER LIBRARY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

THE INTEGRATED LIST GIVEN BELOW has been compiled, with the kind permission of Ms. Pamela Green, Rare Books Librarian, from three separate shelf-lists held in the Rare Book Room of Fisher Library. These are:

- (a) the general shelf-list of the Rare Books collection,
- (b) that of the W.H. and Elizabeth M. Deane Collection, and
- (c) the shelf-list of the Macdonald Collection.

(a) The only books in this section given a special note (B) by Fisher Library are those donated in 1926 by T.D. Barlow, a Manchester business man and second son of Sir Thomas Dalmahoy Barlow, Physician to King Edward VII. Mr Barlow, who felt in his blunt Northern way "that Englishmen are under a considerable obligation to Australia" (note by Professor F.A. Todd in the Sydney Morning Herald of 23 October 1926), donated, after lengthy enquiries as to the most suitable Antipodean home for his gift, some 70 titles, which he in turn had acquired by purchase from the library of Sir Stephen Gaselee (1882–1943).

More substantial collections, embodied in this list, which are not separately noted however, include those of the Sydney lawyer Nicol Drysdale Stenhouse (1803/6–1873) and the richly varied collection of the University's second Chancellor (1854–1862) Sir Charles Nicholson (1808–1903). His books were to arrive in Sydney only two years before those of T.D. Barlow.

(b) The W.H. and Elizabeth M. Deane Collection (D) began in 1957 with an initial sum of £1000, since multiplied many times over, presented by Mr W.H. Deane of Blaxland in the Blue Mountains. The purpose of the Fund thus initiated was "to buy rare books and manuscripts at the direction of the Librarian". To this day Mr Deane remains a much appreciated and staunch benefactor of the Library.

(c) In 1960, the then University Librarian, Dr Andrew Osborn, succeeded in buying, against strong international opposition, the 6000-odd volume collection built up by Hugh Macdonald (1885–1958), sometime Fellow and Tutor of Somerville College, Oxford, and author of definitive bibliographies of Dryden (1939) and Thomas Hobbes (1952). His collection (M), with obvious strengths is seventeenth- and eighteenth-century English literature, contains some 270 STC and 1030 Wing items.

NB: All the following STC numbers refer to the original edition: A.W. Pollard and G.R. Redgrave, eds., A Short-title catalogue of books printed in England, Scotland & Ireland and of English books printed abroad 1475–1640 (London, 1926).
