

STC AND WING ITEMS IN ST PATRICK'S COLLEGE, MANLY, N.S.W.

ST PATRICK'S COLLEGE AT MANLY, which overlooks both the golden beaches of the Pacific and the quieter waters of Port Jackson, was created a full Faculty of Sacred Theology by the Sacred Congregation 20 January 1958. Since the closure in 1977 of St Columba's Seminary at Springwood, N.S.W., it is also now the only seminary in N.S.W. for the training of secular priests.

Its present library holdings of some 70,000 books are in direct lineal descent from "about a thousand volumes of Theology, Fathers, Canon Law and sacred literature" which arrived in 1833 on the Sir Thomas Munro amongst the baggage of the infant Colony's new Vicar General, the Benedictine Bernard William Ullathorne (1806—89).

The College Library possesses about 2,500 pre-1800 imprints. The relative paucity of Wing and STC books in the collection is natural enough given the limited demand in England from the Reformation to the end of the 18th century for printed Catholic material. Much the same reason accounts for the Douai, Paris, Rouen and Dublin imprints noted here.

I am grateful to the College Librarian Mr Hans Arns and his staff for their ready help in providing and locating the items listed below.
